

Aussie Millions Sunday Series NLHE Fact Sheet

The Aussie Millions Series is back for 2010 and is bigger and better value than ever before. It also has a new and much friendlier time slot of 12.10pm Sundays.

Over the course of the year the Crown Poker Room will host three 9 week instalments of the Aussie Millions Series, and as in previous years the tournaments will have great cash payouts as well as giving players the opportunity to win their Aussie Millions Main Event entry for 2011. Points are awarded to players who make the Final Table each week as follows from 1st – 10th: 6,5,4,4,3,3,3,2,2,2.

The top ten point's getters at the end of each 9 week series will play off for an Aussie Millions Main Event seat valued at $10,500. The overall leader at the end of each series will collect $500.

Bonus points are available for players who play seven, eight or nine rounds of the series as follows;

Play 9 rounds = 3 Bonus Points

Play 8 rounds = 2 Bonus Points

Play 7 rounds = 1 Bonus Point

Structures have been improved dramatically with the start bank going from 3,000 up to 10,000, giving every player their best shot of securing a place in the final.

Entry into the tournament each week is $125 which includes a $15 deduction for the end of series final.

Registration opens at the Tournament Booth each Sunday from 11am.

This tournament will not run during major championships.

Any extra prize money allocated to the end of series final will be distributed at the tournament directors discretion.
